The image displays a musical score for John Reger, consisting of ten staves of notation. The notation is arranged in a single column, with each staff containing a line of music. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines, typical of a musical score. The score is presented in a clean, black-and-white format, suitable for a digital document or a printed score.

A musical score consisting of four staves. The first staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The second staff is in bass clef. The third and fourth staves are in treble clef. The music is written in a standard notation style with various note values, rests, and bar lines.
